Note: Unless otherwise indicated, the comparative financial information in this presentation reflects the financial information of "Allwyn International" adjusted for 100% ownership of the key Greece and Cyprus entities (formerly OPAP S.A., "OPAP") and to exclude the historical contribution from Allwyn International's German Casinos, which were sold in 2025. Comparative information is presented on this basis to enhance comparability and provide a clearer view of the underlying performance of the enlarged Group formed through the combination of Allwyn International and OPAP in March 2026. PrizePicks financial information is consolidated from 16 January 2026, unless otherwise indicated, with the acquisition having a material impact on the consolidated metrics for Q2 2026 and on comparability with the prior period. "Allwyn International" refers to KKCG Entertainment International AG, formerly Allwyn International AG.
1. As of 21 August 2026. 2. Net Revenue growth of mid-to-high 20%s before one-off impacts equivalent to c.€60 million, as indicated previously. 3. % of Net Revenue.

Consistent execution of strategy across our geographies continued in Q2

1. Allwyn holds a non-controlling 36.75% interest in Kaizen Gaming International Limited (Betano).
2. Next Lotto is a licensed online reseller of German lottery draw based games. During Q2 2026, the Group acquired an additional interest in Next Lotto, increasing its shareholding from 34.65% to 42.04% for consideration of €4m. Following the quarter end, the Group agreed a series of additional transactions, including the exercise of certain Next Lotto shareholders' put options, to increase its shareholding to 64.53% and secure a controlling interest in the business for aggregate consideration of €16m.
3. Launch of blended line-ups enabled daily fantasy sports PlayerPicks to be combined with a prediction market selection TeamPick within a single-line-up; fully-blended line-ups enable greater flexibility in combining daily fantasy sports PlayerPicks and prediction market selection CulturePicks and TeamPicks within line-ups.
4. Potential extension of private management agreement ("PMA"); extension is subject to agreement of commercial terms.
5. "World Cup" refers to FIFA World Cup 2026™; in Europe and South America.

3 Update on current trading and key takeaways

Current trading and outlook

1 Trading update and outlook[1]

- Since the start of the year our business has continued to perform and develop well, and trading overall is in line with our expectations overall
- Our Group outlook for 2026 is re-affirmed:
  - Consolidated Net Revenue growth of mid-to-high 20%s before one-off impacts of c.-2% in Continental Europe, which is equivalent to c. €60m
  - Adjusted EBITDA margin of ~37% (% of Net Revenue)

2 Macroeconomic environment and consumer sentiment

- No material impact on demand for our products from subdued consumer confidence across a number of markets
- In general, demand for our products has remained resilient in periods of weaker economic growth or consumer sentiment:

✓ Low price point

✓ Low average spend per customer

✓ Large number of regular players

✓ Diversification across geographies

✓ Diversification across product types

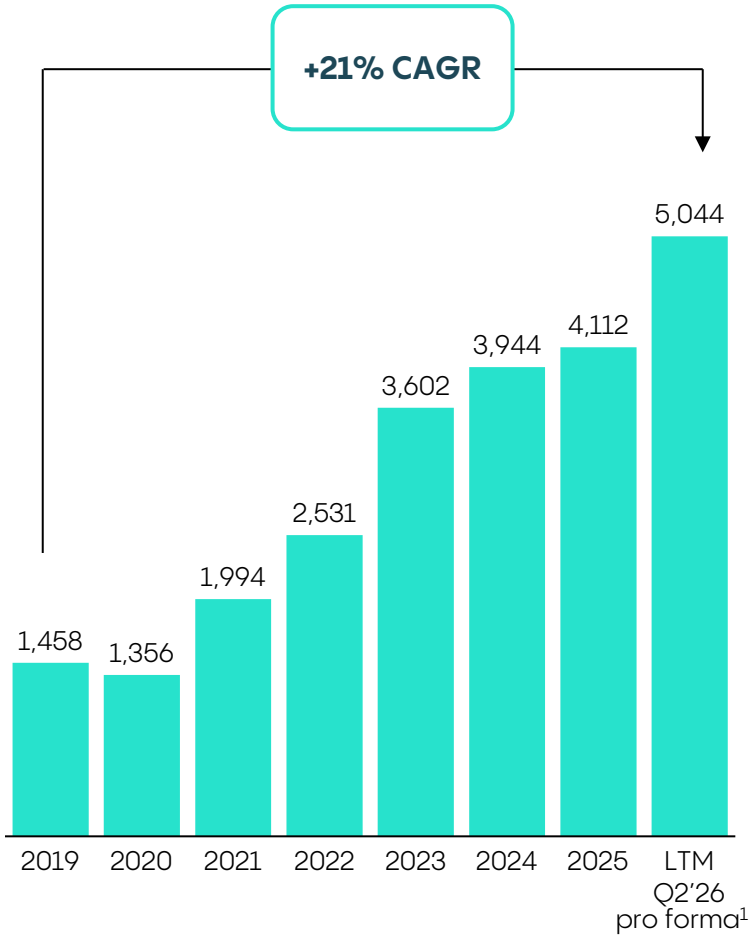

✓ Diversification across channels

Alternative performance measures and comparability of information

This presentation includes non-IFRS performance measures, including Net Revenue, Net gaming revenue ("NGR"), Operating EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA margin and CAPEX, among others.

For Net Revenue, Net gaming revenue, Operating EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA, Adjusted EBITDA margin and CAPEX and other similar non-IFRS measures, please refer to Allwyn AG's Preliminary Unaudited Financial Results dated around the same date as this presentation, which include definitions of these non-IFRS measures.

As there are no generally accepted accounting principles governing the calculation of non-IFRS financial and operating measures, other companies may calculate such measures differently or may use such measures for different purposes than we do, and therefore you should exercise caution in comparing these measures as reported by us to such measures or other similar measures as reported by other companies. These measures may not be indicative of our historical operating results or financial condition, nor are such measures meant to be predictive of our future results or financial condition. Even though the non-IFRS financial measures are used by management to assess our financial position, financial results and liquidity and these types of measures are commonly used by investors, they have important limitations as analytical tools, and you should not consider them in isolation or as substitutes for analysis of our financial position or results of operations as reported under IFRS.

Comparability of information

Unless otherwise stated, comparative financial information for IFRS and non-IFRS income statement metrics reflects the financial information of Allwyn International adjusted for 100% ownership of the key Greece and Cyprus entities (formerly OPAP S.A., "OPAP") and to exclude the historical contribution from Allwyn International's German Casinos, which were sold in 2025. Comparative information is presented on this basis to enhance comparability and provide a clearer view of the underlying performance of the enlarged Group formed through the combination of Allwyn International and OPAP in March 2026.

The selected cash flow information for the comparative period presented reflects the financial information of Allwyn International. information is not adjusted for 100% ownership of the Greece and Cyprus entities (formerly, OPAP S.A.; i.e. dividends to minorities is not adjusted to reflect the combination of Allwyn International and OPAP), nor does it exclude the historical contribution from Allwyn International's German casinos, which were sold in 2025.

The consolidated financial information of Allwyn AG for the comparative period prepared in accordance with IFRS differ materially from the financial information presented in this presentation, as it solely comprises OPAP.
